

How should a foundry respond to a questionnaire sent by a REACH consortium?

If a consortium writes to you, contact your association.

Foundries do not need to complete the complex multi-page questionnaires mailed by various REACH consortiums. In all such cases, please address your association which will contact the consortium in question.